TROPICAL FLAVOR EXPLOSION

More and more people are interested in complex flavor combinations and multi-flavor experiences. For example, the combination of sweet and spicy, or sweet and savory in starters, mains, and desserts. These contrasting flavors create a veritable tropical flavor explosion on your guests' plates. So, this is definitely a trend that should be part of your repertoire in the near future.

YAKITORI WITH FRESH LIME, COCONUT FLAKES, AND GRILLED PINEAPPLE SALSA

Did you know that 'Yaki' means grilled in Japanese, and 'Tori' means chicken? Our Yakitori skewers with tender chicken are charcoal-roasted until cooked through, then topped with delicious Teriyaki sauce according to an authentic Japanese recipe. These savory skewers are then garnished with coconut flakes, lime wedges, and mint for a fresh twist. Serve them with a grilled pineapple salsa with pickled red onion and green chili pepper, for a mildly spicy contrast. We guarantee your guests will be blown away by this tropical flavor explosion!
